Multidisciplinary Journal of Educational Research became aware of author misconduct and plagiarism affecting this article published in the journal. The Editorial Board was notified by the Vice-Rector Research Policy and Research Coordination Office of KU Leuven, who informed of the investigation conducted by the Commission on Research Integrity (CRI) of that university. The results of the investigation found that the article contains significant overlap with previously published articles. Therefore, following the REMIE policies regarding Publication Ethics, the Editorial Board of Multidisciplinary Journal of Educational Research has decided to retract the following article for reasons of plagiarism.
